INTERVIEW WITH Perspective

POP IN FOR ART

If there is where the heart is, then it appears that in the 21st century, hearts are where the art is. At Hong Kong's Blue House by 100 in Causeway Bay Chinese urban contemporary artist Fung's is showcasing Hong Kong's largest collection of his work.

100
Causeway Bay
100 Causeway Bay
Causeway Bay, Hong Kong

How Hong Kong's art scene has evolved since 1997, when it was a colony, is a topic that has been explored in many ways. One of the most recent is a book by the same name, 'Hong Kong's Art Scene 1997-2017', which explores the city's art scene from the 1990s to the present day.

For many years, Hong Kong has been a hub for contemporary art. The city's art scene has evolved from a small, niche market to a major force in the global art world. This evolution is reflected in the city's art institutions, galleries, and artists.

Contemporary art is a complex and ever-evolving field. It is a reflection of the world we live in, and it is a way for artists to express their thoughts and feelings. In Hong Kong, contemporary art has a long and rich history, and it is a field that is constantly evolving.
